Tui Ridge Park

---

Tui Ridge Park is located on Oturoa Road, 17 kilometres north of Rotorua. It is set in a 170 hectares of bush and native forest on the Mamaku Plateau. The school sends 12 Year 8 classes to this camp (six classes at a time) for five days/four nights.

ACCOMMODATION

Accommodation is in separate dormitory buildings for boys and girls. The dormitories have bunk beds with separate rooms for supervising adults. The dormitories are carpeted and have heat pumps. Mattresses are supplied, students need to bring their own pillow, sleeping bags and toiletries. There are shower and toilet facilities for each dormitory.

FOOD

Tui Ridge is a fully catered camp. The food has a variety of options each day and provides vegetarian meals. It is very tasty and plentiful. A typical lunch would be pizza, salad and potato wedges. A typical dinner would be nachos or macaroni cheese and dessert. On the first day students need to bring their own lunch, as well as a packet of biscuits or homemade baking for morning tea, afternoon tea and supper during the week. All cutlery and crockery is supplied.

FACILITIES

The dining hall is large and well equipped, and is used for night activities.

There are drying rooms and if necessary an industrial drier available should students need to wash and dry clothing.

PROGRAMME

The programme taken by trained instructors and is designed to enhance the skills learnt and practised in Year 7. Activities include high ropes, abseiling, rock climbing, mountain biking, orienteering and archery. There is also a challenging fitness trail and confidence course on site.

OVERNIGHT EXPERIENCE

Students will take part in an overnight camping experience. They will tramp to the location during the day and sleep in tents but will not leave Tui Ridge grounds. This activity will be led by a classroom teacher and parent helpers.

LOCATION

Tui Ridge camp is approximately 218km (2 hours 50mins) drive from Mt Eden. The camp is 2km from the main entrance, up a gravel road.
